Total length: 4 kilometers

Type of walk : circular

Difficulty: easy

Type of path: tarmac / asphalt

Suggestions: bring some food and enjoy the views

You can not get lost as it is well indicated but also you just need to follow the asphalt road all the time.

The walk starts in the village called Pangua. You can leave your car near the main square and walk towards the top of the village.

In the top of San Formerio you will also find anthropomorphic graves.

This places is very popular at the end of September, specifically the saturday before the 25th of September. On this day people from surrounding areas bring food and drinks to enjoy at this wonderful spot.
